Course Objectives:

At the completion of ENG 100 students should be able to

- Read actively for greater understanding
- Use reading to improve writing by drawing ideas and information from written material
- Use texts to understand own and others' experiences
- Read writing assignments effectively as a guide to creating better papers
- Recognize good writing by actively reading good prose
- Move easily from writing for self-expression to writing for readers
- Write at greater length more easily, more quickly, and more usefully
- Structure their writing to fit the assignment, purpose, and audience
- Develop their ideas and concepts with specific details, examples, and explanations
- Craft more effective and polished sentences and paragraphs
- Use effective planning, invention, revision, and editing to complete successful writing tasks
- Think critically and reason analytically and write and speak clearly and effectively
- Gain a greater awareness of the present through an understanding of other cultures and times
- Understand and appreciate moral values and ethical choices
- Understand and enjoy aesthetic experiences and share in related creative activities

Purpose: I hope English 100 helps YOU develop an awareness of self, of the world and of your purpose in it. We will accomplish this by strengthening your approach to writing. You have a voice that can be clear and that can communicate.

Civility and Cooperation:

Missouri Western requires all students to help us maintain good conditions for teaching and learning. All students will treat their classmates, teachers, and student assistants with civility and respect, both inside and outside the classroom. Students who violate this policy may, among other penalties, be counted absent and asked to leave. You should review your Missouri Western student handbook for further information. This handbook is available online at <http://missouriwestern.edu/handbook/index.pdf>.

Attendance Policy:

In order to improve student learning and to achieve compliance with federal financial aid policies, Western has a mandatory attendance policy for all 100-level courses. This course has a very strict attendance policy in class as well as in Writer's Workshops. If you seven class periods for MWF classes or four Writer's Workshops, for the entire semester, you will receive an F in the class. There are no excused absences, exceptions or "makeups" for this attendance requirement. Furthermore, the maximum number of absences allowed before the midterm report, October 9, for this class is 5. Thus, when you have 6 absences for MWF the Registrar's Office will automatically withdraw you from this class. The Financial Aid Office will reduce financial aid as appropriate.

If you miss a class session, you are responsible for all material covered and assignments given during your absence. All out-of-class assignments are due at the beginning of the class period. No late assignments will be accepted unless you have received prior permission from your teacher.

Grading Policy:

Your grade will be determined on the basis of your progress as a writer, the writings you submit, and your class participation over the course of the semester. You will complete four major writing tasks that will be graded by me. A student who does not turn in complete responses to all four tasks will not pass the course even if the grades achieved in the other writing tasks are satisfactory. You need a C or higher to pass ENG 100 and enter ENG 104. The components of your grade in the course are:

ASSIGNMENT	POINTS	GRADING SCALE	Point Coorelation
4 Writing Tasks	400	A—90 - 100	720-800
Final Exam	100	B—80 - 89	640-719
Daily Warm Ups	100	C—70-79	559-639
Writer's Workshop	100	D—60-69	478-558
Reading Workshop	100	F 59 and below	477 & Below

Late Work Policy:

I do not accept late work. Furthermore, if absent, one cannot get credit for writings done in class.

Writer's Workshop:

Throughout the course of the semester, you will attend the once-a-week, small group Writer's Workshops (listed as "labs" in the class schedule). Some of your Writer's Workshop materials may be used in class, and some of your class papers will be critiqued and proofread in Writer's Workshops. You must ensure that you have the right materials in the right place.

If you miss four Writer's Workshops, you will fail ENG 100. You can make-up an absence, but you must attend the make-up session on Friday of the week you missed. You can only attend the make-up session three times throughout the entire semester. In addition to not showing up for workshop, you can also be counted absent for the following reasons (these situations also apply to class as well):

- arriving late; tardies will be added up for an absence
- not having required materials (textbook, draft of paper, portfolio, etc.)
- not participating/not paying attention to the SA and the lesson
- sleeping
- unacceptable behavior that impedes others' learning such as being disruptive, showing disrespect to your SA and/or peers, using foul language, using a cell phone or other electronic devices, working on other coursework.

Due Dates for Formal Writing Assignments:

- Task One: September 18
- Task Two: October 7
- Task Three: October 28
- Task Four: December 2

Student Disability:

Any student in this course who has a disability that prevents the fullest expressions of abilities should contact Missouri Western's special needs coordinator (Michael Ritter) for possible certification of special needs and expert recommendations for assistance. You should also contact your teacher personally as soon as possible so that the two of you can discuss class requirements.

Academic Honesty Policy:

Academic honesty is required in all academic endeavors. Violations of academic honesty include any instance of plagiarism, cheating, seeking credit for another's work, falsifying documents or academic records or any other fraudulent classroom activity. Cheating and plagiarism are not acceptable. If your teacher finds evidence of cheating or plagiarism, you have the burden of showing that the paper has in fact been written by you. You should keep thorough evidence of your writing processes for all papers so that you can meet this burden of proof. You will receive a grade of F (0 points) for any paper/assignment/exam that shows evidence of cheating and/or plagiarism. You have the burden of proving that a paper/assignment/exam showing evidence of cheating and/or plagiarism has been in fact written by you. You should keep thorough evidence of your writing processes for all papers so that you can meet this burden of proof. If you plagiarize a paper, you forfeit the right to revise that paper; if you cheat on an exam, you will not be allowed to retake the exam. Violations of academic honesty will be reported to the Provost or the designated representative on the Academic Honesty Violation Report Forms. Please see the Student Handbook for specific activities identified as violations of this policy and the student due process procedure. This handbook is also available online at <http://missouriwestern.edu/handbook/index.pdf>.
