WESTERN TO HOST CONSIDERING COLLEGE SEMINAR

St. Joseph, Mo. — Nov. 24, 2003— Missouri Western State College will host Considering College, a free daylong seminar for adults who are thinking of enrolling in college for the first time or returning after an absence. The program will be Dec. 10 from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Fred Eder Student Services and Classroom building, room 202.

Those attending will be offered Western registration and admission information as well as information on career planning and options. They will also have a chance to discuss student experiences with a panel conducted by nontraditional students who have returned to school. Offices on campus such as Student Services, Financial Aid, Student Health Services and Center for Academic Support will hold brief presentations explaining their role on campus. There will also be an opportunity for a campus tour.

Considering College is sponsored by the Nontraditional Student Center. Pre-registration is encouraged by calling (816) 271-4280.
