WESTERN HOSTS LAW SCHOOL INFORMATIONAL PROGRAM

St. Joseph, Mo.—Oct. 17, 2003— The Missouri Western State College department of criminal justice and legal studies is sponsoring “Law School: How to Get There and What It’s Like,” at noon Oct. 28, in the Nelle Blum Student Union Junior College Room.

The program features Debbie Brooks, director of admissions, University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law; Andrea Cathey, admissions representative, University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law; and law students who are graduates of Western’s department of criminal justice and legal studies. Topics of discussion include how to get into law school, what to expect once enrolled and the law students’ perspective.

The program is free and open to the community. Attendees are invited to bring a sack lunch. For more information, contact Dave Tushaus, assistant professor of criminal justice, at (816) 271-5627.
