WESTERN HOLDS FINANCIAL AID SEMINAR IN SAVANNAH

St. Joseph, Mo. — Dec. 23, 2004 — The Financial Aid Office at Missouri Western State College is hosting a financial aid seminar for high school students and parents from 7–8:30 p.m. Jan. 5 at Savannah High School, 701 E. Williams, Savannah, Mo.

During the seminar, participants will be presented with an overview of federal, state, and other assistance opportunities, information about application procedures and deadlines, how the government determines eligibility for aid, how to locate and apply for scholarship opportunities, information about financial aid scams and how to avoid them and much more.

The event is not limited to students who plan to attend Western and information and assistance provided will be relevant at most colleges and universities nationwide. Information specific to Western will also be provided upon request.

For more information, contact Cindy Conrad or Tammy Davidson in the Western Financial Aid Office at (816) 271-4507.
