NOONTIME CONCERT FEATURES ST. FRANCIS ADULT CHOIR

St. Joseph, Mo. —Oct. 25, 2005—The St. Francis Temple Adult Choir will be featured at the First Thursday Downtown Noon Concert series on Nov. 3. The concert begins at 12:10 p.m. and will be held in the sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church, 7th and Jules.

The audience is invited to bring lunch to eat while listening to the 35-minute performance. Beverages will be provided and audience members can meet the musicians following the concert. The suggested donation is $3.

The members of St. Francis Choir keep their religious message at the forefront and drive it home with an emotionally-charged performance. The choir is under the direction of Harold Williams. Instrumentalists are Marsha Tyes, Merlynne Hughes and James Goodwin.

For further information, contact Jerry Anderson, associate professor of music at Missouri Western State University, at 816-271-4431 or anderson@missouriwestern.edu.
