WESTERN'S "ROCKY HORROR SHOW" TO AID SECOND HARVEST FOOD BANK

St. Joseph, Mo. —Sept. 28, 2005—The Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater St. Joseph and the Missouri Western State University theatre department are teaming up to collect money and food for the hungry.

Western's theatre department will present Richard O'Brien's "The Rocky Horror Show" at 8 p.m. Oct. 6, 7 and 8, and 11 p.m. Oct. 7 in the Potter Hall main stage theater. At the final dress rehearsal at 8 p.m. Oct. 5, volunteers will collect free-will donations of $2 or four cans of food for admission to benefit the Second Harvest Food Bank.

Tickets for the performances are $8 for adults and $4 for students and seniors. Parental discretion is advised due to the strong adult content of the performance.

The cast of 20 students will perform the original stage version of "The Rocky Horror Show." In this version, audience participation is strongly discouraged, but the show contains multimedia components and a rock concert feel.

For more information about the show, contact the box office at 816-271-4443.
