WESTERN PLANS BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION

St. Joseph, Mo.—Jan. 17, 2003—The Office of Unity Services will host a variety of events in honor of Black History Month, including 10 programs open to the general public.

The purpose of the events is to share the accomplishments of African-Americans with the larger community.

“We are going to hold discussions on racism and desegregation,” said Sandy Rogers, coordinator of Unity Services. “We feel these topics need to be talked about.”

The calendar is as follows:

- Jan. 28 The Society of Success and Leadership Video Conference is co-sponsoring “The Future is Yours to Create: A Look at Life and Leadership,” presented by Nancy Hunter-Denny. The event is at 6 p.m. in the Leah Spratt Multipurpose Classroom Building, room 214-216.
- Feb. 3 A lecture entitled “The Impact of Desegregation on the St. Joseph Community.” The lecture, given by Western’s Dr. Richard Porr, will focus on desegregation in the St. Joseph School District. The event is at 7 p.m. in the Leah Spratt Multipurpose Classroom Building, room 214-216.
