Psi Chi Induction at Western

St. Joseph, Mo.—March 3, 2003—The Missouri Western State College chapter of Psi Chi, the National Honor Society in psychology, recently inducted eight new members. For admission into Psi Chi undergraduates must have completed three semesters of college and completed nine semester hours of psychology courses. They must rank in the top 35% of their class in general scholarship and maintain a 3.0 grade point average in both general courses and psychology courses.

Those students inducted were: Nicole Renee Goetz of Bridgeton, Mo.; Joan E. Gillahan of Cameron, Mo.; Lindsay Rae Fuller of Liberty, Mo.; Kasey J. Starr of Meriden, Kan.; Tabitha L. Larson of Omaha, Neb.; Tara D. Anderson of St. Joseph; Sarah C. Holland of St. Joseph and Brynn Erin Holloway of St. Joseph.

Psi Chi was founded in 1929 for the purposes of encouraging, stimulating, and maintaining excellence in scholarship, and advancing the science of psychology. Membership is awarded to graduate and undergraduate men and women who are making the study of psychology one of their major interests and who meet the qualifications. Psi Chi is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies and is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association (APA) and the American Psychological Society (APS). Psi Chi has grown over the past 71 years into one of the largest and most successful honor societies in the world with over 975 chapters located at college and university campuses throughout the United States.

Missouri Western State College is a four-year public institution providing a blend of traditional liberal arts and professional degree programs. The college offers student-centered, high quality instruction that focuses on experience-based learning, community service, and state-of-the-art technology. Western is located in St. Joseph, Mo. and is committed to the educational, economic, cultural and social development of the region it serves.
