THREE RETIRE FROM WESTERN

St. Joseph, Mo. —May 13, 2003 —Three Missouri Western State College employees retired at the end of the 2003 spring semester:

- Dr. Susan Gille, professor of nursing, began teaching at the college in 1985.
- Dr. Michael Mathews, who began at Western in 1978, was a professor of music.
- Donna Clark, secretary in the counseling and testing center, has worked at the college since 1979.

Missouri Western State College is a four-year public institution providing a blend of traditional liberal arts and professional degree programs. The college offers student-centered, high quality instruction that focuses on experience-based learning, community service, and state-of-the-art technology. Western is located in St. Joseph, Mo. and is committed to the educational, economic, cultural and social development of the region it serves.
