WESTERN ANNOUNCES TWO NEW STAFF MEMBERS

St. Joseph, Mo.—Jan. 28, 2002—Missouri Western State College recently hired the two new staff members. Gene Eulinger was hired in December as Western's new registrar and Jeff Wilson has recently been hired as the new student job location coordinator.

Eulinger came to Western from Linn State Technical College in Linn, Mo., where he was the registrar. Before Linn State, he was the supervisor of agriculture at the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education in Jefferson City and taught vocational agriculture in Lathrop, Maysville and Tarkio.

Wilson came to Western from Honeywell FM&T where he was a recruiter. He received his bachelor of arts in political science from Rockhurst University and is currently working on his master's in human resource management at Ottawa University-Kansas City.

Missouri Western State College is a four-year public institution providing a blend of traditional liberal arts and professional degree programs. The college offers student-centered, high quality instruction that focuses on experience-based learning, community service, and state-of-the-art technology. Western is located in St. Joseph, Mo. and is committed to the educational, economic, cultural and social development of the region it serves.
