WESTERN ANNOUNCES STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

St. Joseph, Mo. — April 6, 2005 — Missouri Western State College announces recent achievements of its students:

- The American Criminal Justice Association Lambda Alpha Epsilon held its 68th Annual National Conference in Memphis, Tenn. The Western chapter, Delta Phi Upsilon, had several students attend and receive awards. Sarah Stout of Olathe, Kan. placed second in LAE Knowledge Upper division and Ashley Smith of Kansas City, Mo. placed first in LAE Knowledge Upper division. Smith also received a scholarship award of $200. The students also competed in the annual lip sync contest and placed first.
- Nick Limle, a senior economics major from St. Joseph, Mo. and Dr. Reza Hamzaee, professor of economics, co-authored a research paper, “The Trade Implications of the Foreign Exchange-Rate Forecasting,” which was published in The International Applied Business Research Conference’s preceding journal, and presented by Limle at that conference held in Walt Disney World, Orlando.
