KIMBERLY WALKER AWARDED TWO WESTERN SCHOLARSHIPS

St. Joseph, Mo. — July 27, 2005— Kimberly Walker, a senior nursing major from St. Joseph, was awarded the Alan J. Cabiness scholarship and the MWSC/Heartland Regional Community Foundation scholarship from Missouri Western State College.

The Cabiness Scholarship is awarded annually to nursing students. A minimum GPA of 3.0 is required to qualify and maintain this award. Preference is given to third- and fourth-semester nursing students and/or students with involvement in professional activities.

The MWSC/Heartland Regional Community Foundation scholarship is awarded to students who have a minimum of 12 college credits completed, including one lab science; a minimum of 3.0 cumulative GPA; a statement of interest in professional nursing; a statement of reason for scholarship application; and a statement of prior awards and current scholarships. The recipients are selected by the department of nursing and a representative of Heartland Health System.

The award is for the 2005-2006 year.
