WESTERN ALUM NAMED CHAIR OF NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

St. Joseph, Mo. —June 10, 2005—Missouri Western State College alumnus Ernie Stufflebean has been elected chair of the board of directors for the National Association for Campus Activities (NACA).

Stufflebean, the director of student activities at William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo., has served on the NACA board of directors as finance committee chair and treasurer. He also served as chair of the former NACA Heart of America Region.

Stufflebean received a bachelor's degree in criminal justice/law from Western and a master's degree in higher education and administration from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. He has been in the campus activities field since 1993.

NACA, a national not-for-profit membership association, has been connecting students and campus activities professionals with entertainment, lecture and promotional firms since 1960. NACA links the higher education and entertainment communities in a business and learning partnership, creating educational and business opportunities for their student and professional members. Headquartered in Columbia, S.C., NACA's membership includes more than 1,050 colleges and universities across the country and more than 600 talent, lecture and promotional agencies nationwide. For more information about NACA, please visit www.naca.org.
