A CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: WESTERN'S DRUM MAJOR FOR JUSTICE AWARD

St. Joseph, Mo. —Dec. 15, 2006—The center for multicultural education at Missouri Western State University is putting forth a call for nominations for its annual Drum Major for Justice Award. One Western student, one member of the St. Joseph community and one Western employee will be chosen as the 2007 recipients of the Drum Major for Justice Award. The awards are given to those committed to social justice, multicultural education, service and academic excellence (students). Deadline for nominations is Jan. 3, 2007.

The award ceremony will be held at the fourth annual Drum Major for Justice Luncheon on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, Jan. 15 on Western's campus.

All nominations should speak to the nominee's commitment to multicultural education, social justice, service to the community and academic excellence. Please submit these nominations to Tay D. Triggs, multicultural education director, Missouri Western State University, 4525 Downs Drive, Blum 210, St. Joseph, MO 64507 or by email at ttriggs@missouriwestern.edu.
