

DR. JAMES V. MEHL OUTSTANDING FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Missouri Western State University will present an award to an outstanding faculty member who excels in scholarship.

All full-time faculty members are eligible. The awards are not limited to those on tenure tracks. Awards will be made to faculty scholars. No restrictions are to be placed on the recipients' use of the awards and previous recipients continue to be eligible in successive years. Awards must be given only to the highest achieving faculty members. All awards must be paid to the recipients in cash. The Foundation will not be involved in the process of selection of award winners.

To be eligible to receive an award, the candidate must have evidence of unusually significant and meritorious achievement in professional scholarship.

The nominating report should contain no more than five pages of narrative explaining the individual's qualifications for the award, a current resume, and three letters of recommendation, at least one of which is from an off-campus professional peer. The selection will be based on data from the prior calendar year. The Dean will recommend no more than two faculty members from each school/college to the Provost. The Provost will recommend one person to the President for the Dr. James V. Mehl Outstanding Faculty Scholarship Award.

Applications and nominations must be sent to the appropriate School/College Dean by April 4.