Course Description:

ENG 104 students will complete four formal writing assignments in addition to other graded and nongraded work through which they will learn how to discover ideas, respond to texts, and summarize others' ideas. In these assignments, students will learn how to analyze readings and share information with others by reading and responding to course texts and other materials gathered through research. Final drafts of all formal writing assignments must be word-processed, double-spaced, Times Roman (14) font, and one-inch margins. All students are expected to be prepared for class and participate in class discussions related to reading and writing assignments. In addition, students will keep complete portfolios of all their writings.

For common objectives/means and institutional competencies for ENG 104, also refer to the English department website at <http://www.missouriwestern.edu/eflj/eng104.asp> - Objectives

Peer Revision Groups: Students will be required to participate in peer revision groups several times in the semester. Bring out of class assignments, that must be word-processed, and enough copies of your rough draft to share and receive feedback from your group in order to help you strengthen and revise your own written work. This is a required activity and will be part of your grade for the portfolio and the course.

Journals: Journal entries will be due each Wed. and will be looked at, but not scrutinized for content. Journal writing is intended to help you get a better feel for the writing process and for putting thoughts and ideas down on paper.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance is expected. There will be no makeups for quizzes and in-class exercises. Three absents will lower your grade by one letter grade; six two letter grades etc. Please inform me if you know ahead of time you must be absent from class.
