Name: _____

Voice Lessons

The bell rang. Jane Smith walked into her first period classroom. She looked around at the other students sitting in the desks. She walked over to an empty desk and sat down. She looked out the window. The sky was her mood. Jane took out a pencil and began writing in response to the prompt on the board. It was going to be that kind of day.

What kind of day did Jane have? Can you tell?

Pick two different moods for Jane.

_____ _____

Rewrite the above description for the first mood you have chosen changing only the nouns & verbs in the passage. DO NOT add any adjectives or adverbs.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

--OVER--

Rewrite the description for the second mood you have chosen changing the nouns & verbs in the passage as well as integrating figurative language and imagery. Avoid clichés.