WESTERN'S NEW STUDENT PUBLICATION CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

St. Joseph, Mo. — March 3, 2005 — Missouri Western State College has a new literary and art publication, and students, faculty, staff and alumni are encouraged to submit their work. “Canvas” welcomes submissions in all genres, including creative writing, short fiction, creative nonfiction, essays, poetry, lyrics, drama, black and white photography and sketches.

Submissions must be received by March 25 to be considered for publication. Online submissions are preferred and can be submitted at www.mwsc.edu/eflj/canvas/index. Hard copies will be accepted in the “Canvas” mailbox located in the English, foreign languages & journalism department, in the Fred Eder Student Services/Classroom Building, room 222 or 214. Hard copies must be accompanied by an electronic copy, along with a short biography (no more than three or four lines) and a cover letter with author’s name, email address, the work titles, and genres.

For more information, contact William Church at 271-5966 or church@mwsc.edu.
