INFORMATION ON THE WRITING PLACEMENT TEST

The Writing Placement Exam will be given only on the day/time listed at https://www.missouriwestern.edu/eml/writing-placement-exam-2/. There will be no additional or make-up session. In addition, the Writing Placement Exam will not be given once classes begin.

All students will be placed in a composition course based on EACT English subscore. If you wish to challenge this placement, you can take the WPE, Writing Placement Exam.

- 17 or lower – ENG 100
- 18 or higher – ENG 104
- 26 or higher – ENG 112

The WPE is administered prior to registration for the fall and spring semesters. If you need to have your placement determined or have any questions, contact the Director of Writing Placement at 271-4313.

The WPE is an essay written on the assigned topic during a 45-minute period. You will be given a test folder containing the topic and a supply of lined paper. Please bring a black ink pen with you. You may prepare for the WPE as much as you wish, but you may not bring any notes or written materials with you.

Your essay will be scored by trained and expert readers. It will be read and scored:

- to evaluate your critical reading, thinking, and writing skills,
- see how well you limit and shape the general topic,
- to evaluate how well you control the essay form, and
- to judge how well you select and develop supporting detail.

Each evaluator will score your paper using a scale of 1 (weak) to 6 (extremely strong), using the criteria set out below. The scores will be averaged to give a range of scores from 1 (lowest) to 6 (highest).

After your test has been scored, you will receive a placement card listing your WPE score and your placement in ENG 100, 104, or 112. We will also place a record of your test results in your electronic registration file so that you will be able to register for the right course.

Placement in ENG 100 Introduction to College Writing:
If your score is below our cut-off, you will enroll in ENG 100 Introduction to College Writing. This is a three-credit course which counts toward graduation in all two-year and four-year programs. You must also complete ENG 104 and, if you are a four-year degree seeking student, ENG 108 in order to satisfy the General Studies requirement.

ENG 100 is a three-credit, college level English course that is Missouri Western’s “Introduction to College Writing.” It prepares students to succeed in ENG 104 and ENG 108, the composition courses that count toward completion of General Studies requirements, as well as many other classes that require academic writing. In this course, students will refine their writing process, engage in critical reading, thinking and writing and be required to write both personal and text-based essays. ENG 100 has both a classroom and workshop component; the class meets three hours a week and the Writer’s Workshop meets one hour a week. In Writer’s Workshop, you will meet with other ENG 100 students and a trained Student Assistant/Tutor for small group tutorials. Students who have taken this course acknowledge its benefits and claim that it prepared them for the rigors of college-level writing and introduced them to college expectations.

Placement in ENG 104 College Writing and Rhetoric:
If your score is above our cut-off, you will enroll in ENG 104 College Writing and Rhetoric. ENG 104 counts toward graduation, fulfilling the General Studies composition requirement for a two-year degree. For a four-year degree, you will also need to take ENG 108 College Writing and Research.

Placement in ENG 112 Honors Composition:
Students who have an adjusted score of 6 on the regular WPE may also enter ENG112. Students who successfully complete ENG112 fulfill the General Studies composition requirement in just one three-credit course. If they do not already have ENG104 credit, students who pass ENG112 also receive three additional hours of credit toward graduation.

Writing Placement Exam
Time: 45 Minutes. Do not waste time recopying; make changes on the draft. The readers will assume that you have used the entire time to complete and polish your writing.

Writing Assignment
We expect college writers to be able to critically read a text and write in response to that text. Please read the following article. Then, write an essay in which you describe and explain why you agree or disagree with the author’s argument. You must offer reasons and support those reasons with your own experiences as well as with the author’s experiences and claims. For this essay, you must have a balance between information from your own life and from the text. If you only write about your own experiences, you will not pass this placement exam. Furthermore, if you do not...
accurately assess and explain the author’s points, you will not pass this placement exam.

Time: 45 minutes. Do not waste time recopying; make changes on the draft. You will be informed when you have 5 minutes left to write. The readers will assume that you have used the entire time to complete and polish your writing.

Goals for Successful Essays

Length: The essays should be long enough to completely address the topic as well as to demonstrate all of your abilities. For most writers, that has proven to be about 3 handwritten pages.

Purpose: Your essay must show proof that you have understood the author’s article/argument and made connections to the article/argument.

Focus: The essay should clearly focus on the assigned topic.

Thesis: The essay should support one main idea, and that idea should be clearly identified. The thesis should include the author’s thesis as well as your connection (agreement or disagreement) to the text. More interesting and challenging ideas will earn higher ratings.

Detail and Support: The essay should be full of facts, examples, quotes and explanations from the article as well as your own opinions and experiences that support the main idea.

Order: The essay should use an effective order that is easy to follow. Your essay must contain an introduction with thesis, focused body paragraphs and conclusion.

Clarity: The paragraphs, sentences, and words should make sense to readers without too much effort.

Essay Scores and Placements

Your essays will be scored by expert readers. Those scores will result in the following placements and reflect the following judgments:

Department of English and Modern Languages (EML) Policies for Non-Native Speakers:

- All non-native speakers must take and pass the Writing Placement Exam (WPE) to enter composition courses at MWSU. In addition, all non-native speakers must take the Accuplacer to determine if they need to enroll in RDG 095. These placement exams are the same exams administered to all students.
- The Director of Developmental Writing and Placement administers the WPE during Registration and Orientation sessions for all students prior to the start of each semester for placement. The non-native speaking students can take the exam during the regularly-scheduled WPE sessions or the Director of International Students/IEP can schedule a separate session for non-native speaking students with the Director of Developmental Writing and Placement.
- The Director of Developmental Writing and Placement administers the WPE at the end of the semester to each IEP class to determine if each student is prepared to enter college composition courses (ENG 100, ENG 104). Students who do not receive a “passing” grade are required to continue with IEP courses.
- All information about the WPE can be found at: https://www.missouriwestern.edu/eml/writing-placement-exam-2/

Placement Scores: This scoring scale is slightly revised from the original WPE scale (1-3: ENG 100; 4-5: ENG 104; 6: ENG 112):

1: IEP
2: ENG 100 with IEP
3: ENG 100
4-5: ENG 104
6: ENG 112

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT’S PRIVACY RIGHTS

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a noncriminal justice purpose (such as an application for a job or license, an immigration or naturalization matter, security clearance, or adoption), you have certain rights which are discussed below.

• You must be provided written notification\(^1\) that your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history record of the FBI.
• If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.
• The officials must advise you that the procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.
• If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record (or decline to do so) before the officials deny you the job, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.\(^2\)

You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council.\(^3\)

If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks.

If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.)

\(^1\)Written notification includes electronic notification, but excludes oral notification.
\(^2\)See 28 CFR 50.12(b)
