

Measure 1: Impact on P-12 Learning and Development

The Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) gathers data annually on all first-year teachers in the state of Missouri, disaggregated by EPP.

The survey is completed by principals of first-year teachers. The survey contains a question asking principals to rate each first-year teachers' impact upon P-12 students.

The following document displays data pertaining to first-year teachers who completed an Education program at MWSU.
