- If accepted, you will be receiving notifications regarding honors course scheduling, news and invitations for honors events and the Student Honors Organization. Once your Missouri Western e-mail is established, any personal contact regarding your progress in the honors program will be sent through your Missouri Western e-mail. You must check your MWSU e-mail at least once per week. We will not be responsible for notifying you by other means besides your Missouri Western e-mail account.
- Honors students must demonstrate progress toward General Studies Honors. To maintain honors status and privileges, you should take at least one General Studies Honors class or Colloquium per semester until completing the program of six General Studies Honors classes and six credits of colloquia.
- Honors students must maintain a GPA of 3.2 for Freshmen and 3.5 for all other levels to remain in the program.
- Lack of progress or falling below GPA will result in a warning for the first semester, a meeting with the honors director for the second semester, and potential withdrawal the third semester (see Honors Student Survival Guide for details).
- Honors students are expected to adhere to the Honors Student Pledge of Conduct (see Honors Student Survival Guide).

I certify that the information included in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge and I agree to adhere to the above requirements of the Honors Program:
