- If accepted, you will be receiving notifications regarding honors course scheduling, news and invitations for honors events and the Student Honors Organization. Once your Missouri Western e-mail is established, any personal contact regarding your progress in the honors program will be sent through your Missouri Western e-mail. You must check your MWSU e-mail at least once per week. We will not be responsible for notifying you by other means besides your Missouri Western e-mail account.
- 15-31 hours: Honors students must demonstrate progress toward General Studies Honors. To maintain honors status and privileges, honors students should take at least one General Studies Honors class or Colloquium per semester until completing the program. The program requires completion of 24 credit hours of honors-designated courses with a minimum of 6 credit hours of Colloquia.
- 32+ hours: If accepted after completing 32 hours of college-level coursework, the student must fill out a Majors Honors application and actively pursue its requirements as specified in the Majors Honors Application (2 upper-division classes as specified by the department that offers the major, and 3 colloquia) before beginning the Majors Honors project.
- Honors students must maintain a GPA of 3.25 to remain in the program.
- Lack of progress or falling below GPA will result in a warning for the first semester, a meeting with the honors director for the second semester, and potential withdrawal the third semester (see Honors Student Survival Guide available at www.missouriwestern.edu/honors for details).
- Honors students are expected to adhere to the Honors Student Pledge of Conduct (see Honors Student Handbook).

I certify that the information included in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge and I agree to adhere to the above requirements of the Honors Program:
