New Business
Griffon Weekly: Mallory Murray and Autumn Sands discussed the Griffon Weekly and its origin and purpose. It was developed due to complaints from faculty, staff, and students that too many e-mails were being sent throughout the days and weeks. The Griffon Weekly reduces the number of mass emails sent per week. A change in any process is difficult. There have been growing pains and all issues are being addressed. The PR/Marketing office has received few complaints but overall positive feedback.

Is there a way to recognize people who have passed away during the academic year? Could this be done in General Session or Faculty and Staff Awards/Retirees Reception? Carol Hare will address this with Human Resources.

Adjournment
Meeting was adjourned at 4:02 p.m. by Debbie Johnson, Tara Adwell seconded.

Next meeting is May 14, 2014 at 3:00 p.m. in Blum 220.

Respectfully Submitted,

Amy Parnell
